The screenshot shows a webpage titled 'What is the Entrepreneur's B.A.I.L. Team?'. The page header includes 'MONTANA CHILD CARE BUSINESS CONNECT' logo and the tagline 'Small Business Support. Big Community Impact.'. The main content area starts with the title 'What is the Entrepreneur's B.A.I.L. Team?'. Below the title, there are three paragraphs of text. The first paragraph explains that entrepreneurship is a team sport and that business owners cannot do every job themselves. The second paragraph states that every entrepreneur starting, running, or growing a business should have a series of subject matter experts (SMEs) to assist them. The third paragraph explains that not all advisors need to be actively engaged with the business to be considered on the team. The fourth paragraph defines the B.A.I.L. team as an acronym for the team members every business needs plus a list of other SMEs that may need to be engaged throughout the life of a business. The fifth paragraph discusses the two types of advisors, their approaches, and financial implications. Below the text, there is a section titled 'THE STANDARD B.A.I.L. TEAM' which lists four core SMEs: Banker - Deposits, Banker - Lending, Accountant - Bookkeeping, and Accountant - Payroll. Below this, there is a section titled 'THE LOCATION AND INDUSTRY TEAM (AS APPLICABLE)' which lists various roles such as Licensing - Industry, Licensing - Jurisdiction, Location - Planning, Zoning, & Occupancy, Industry - Child Care Resource and Referral, Industry - Professional Development Specialists, Industry - Program Participation (CACFP), and Industry - STARS Consultant.
